

GERMAN 202: Intermediate German 2

MWF 10-10:50 am

Now with our new textbook: Impuls Deutsch 2! This semester, we will discuss who "the Germans" are, talk about different kinds of media, learn about different kinds of protest and resistance movements, and talk about many other topics along the way.

You will practice and improve your writing, speaking, listening, and reading skills, and we will review many key grammar topics as well, to make sure that you are ready for our advanced German languages courses afterwards!

Prerequisite: GER 201 or equivalent. If you are not sure if this course is for you, contact Dr. Viktoria Harms, vih16@pitt.edu.
