

The Center for Russian, East European, & Eurasian Studies
and the Honors College present

FULBRIGHT OPPORTUNITIES

FOR FACULTY AND STUDENTS
IN THE VISEGRAD COUNTRIES AND BEYOND

Monday, April 1, 2019
4:30 - 6:00 p.m. | 3911 Posvar Hall

Join us for this info session to learn about Fulbright program grants for students and faculty in Hungary, Slovakia, the Czech Republic, Poland, Romania, and Bulgaria.

SPEAKER: Dr. Károly Jókay, Executive Director, Fulbright Hungary

An expert in municipal finance and bankruptcy, Jókay taught municipal finance, public budgeting and public management in the Department of Public Policy at Central European University between 2005 and 2017. Jókay has extensive experience in Central and Eastern European countries, including Serbia, Bosnia-Herzegovina and Macedonia, completing projects on municipal bond disclosure standards, public utility transformation and regulation in the municipal services sector, as well as municipal debt regulation. He was born in Chicago to Hungarian parents, earned a B.A. in Economics from the University of Michigan and has an M.A. and Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of Illinois. Jókay moved to Hungary in 1994, became active in several civil society organizations, and established a family foundation to support the education of poor, rural children in the High School of the Reformed Church in Pápa.

PittGlobal | University Center for International Studies

CENTER FOR RUSSIAN, EAST EUROPEAN & EURASIAN
STUDIES

